beginning. He is not on good terms with Midhat Frasherî, character No. 1 on our list, but he is in the same party and represents the reconciling group of the party. He is responsible for keeping the party together. Otherwise, it would have split a year or so ago. He is accused by his own party members of wanting to reconcile with King Zog's and Verlaci's group. His position in the party comes directly after Midhat Frasherî, although Abas Ermanji, character No. 7 on our list, is becoming a strong rival to him. He has been left out of the Albanian National Committee. He is now in New York. He had five sons and three girls. His wife and one of his sons were killed by the Germans, and one of his sons is now in prison in Tirana. He is with one of his sons in New York, where they arrived separately in 1948. His son's name is Luan ~~(P)~~. Dosti, himself, speaks, besides Albanian, French, Greek, and Turkish, as well as Italian.
